SGOWS MUST MOVE AWAY

MATOR TO CLEAR WATERFRONT.

"It is not at all my purpose to be "It is not at all my purpose to be harsh in this matter," said the Mayor, after he had issued the order "book to be after he had issued the order. "but I must insist that the waterfront be cleaned up and that those occupying scows along the river remove their belongings. I cannot permit them to remain there, for reasons that are perfectly plain. It is an unfit place for the people themselves, and it is positively a menace to health and property, so that it is imperative that they move
