The Right to Rest Act Would

1. Protect homeless people’s right to move freely, rest and sleep in public spaces.
2. Ensure that homeless people will connect with the appropriate services and outreach.
3. Protects homeless people’s right to protect themselves from the elements in a way that doesn’t obstruct public access.
4. Protect the right to occupy a legally parked vehicle.
5. Protect the right to share food and eat in public.

The Right to Rest Act Would Not

1. Permit anyone, homeless or not, to harass people on the streets or maliciously block sidewalks.
2. Allow people to urinate and defecate publicly.
3. Allow homeless people to harm or interfere with local businesses’ operations.
4. Grant homeless individuals “special rights” over all other citizens.
5. Infringe on anyone’s property rights.
6. Interfere with any other law not related to a person’s ability to sit, lie, rest or sleep in public.
