A Tale of Two Acts

Over the last century there have been two episodes of mass homelessness in the United States. Legislation from each era tells the story...

Act I

Artist: Claire
Leighton

- The Housing Act of 1937 committed:
“to remedy the unsafe & unsanitary housing conditions & the acute shortage of decent, safe, & sanitary dwellings for families of lower income...”

Act II

- The Quality Housing & Work Responsibility Act of 1998 declared:

“the Federal Government cannot through its direct action alone provide housing of every American, or even the majority of its citizens.”

The Vicious Cycle of Homeless Policy

Race & Homelessness

Race/Ethnicity	Estimated % of nation's total population (from US Census Data 2010)	Estimated % of nation's homeless population (homeless counts/surveys between 1991 and 2009)
African-American	12.6%	40-56%
Asian/Pacific Islander	4.8% - 0.2%	1-3% - 1%
Hispanic/Latino	16.3%	12-15%
Native American	0.9%	3-4%
White	72.4%	32-39%

Criminalization of Homelessness / Poverty

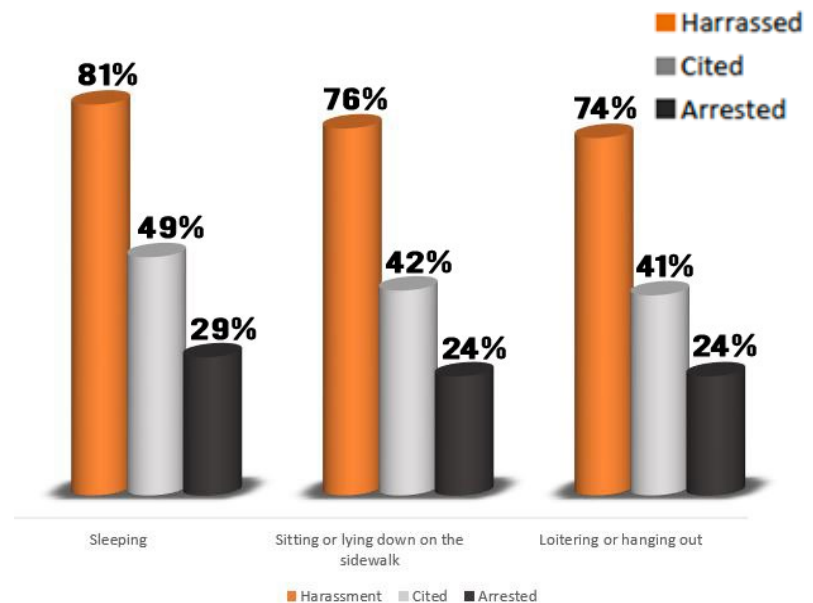

At the heart of our Civil Rights work is outreach to homeless and poor people that documents their experiences with local police and private security. We have recently surveyed 1,388 people in five states and twelve cities. There can be no denying that “Broken Windows,” “Quality of Life,” “Civil Sidewalks,” and “Safer Cities” initiatives are anything less than a reincarnation of “Ugly Laws,” “Anti-Okie laws,” “Sundown Towns,” “Bracero Treaty” and “Jim Crow” when you hear directly the voices of those who are the targets of today’s campaigns.

The main “illegal offenses” that homeless people are being targeted with:

- * 81% for sleeping, with 49% of these people cited and 29% arrested
- * 76% for sitting or lying down, with 42% of these people cited and 24% arrested
- * 74% for loitering or hanging out, with 41% of these people cited and 24% arrested

Do you know of places where it is safe and legal for you to sleep outside?

- * 73% No
- * 27% Yes

Historical Criminalization

The United States has a long history of using mean-spirited and often brutal laws to keep “certain” people out of public consciousness. Jim Crow, Sundown towns and Anti-Okie laws, Operation Wetback and Ugly laws - they all targeted various populations based on their racial, economic, social, immigration or disability status. Understanding this history is important. Today’s exclusionary and discriminatory laws target homeless people; they criminalize sleeping, sitting, loitering, panhandling and even food-sharing in public spaces. Just like the laws from our past, they deny people their right to exist in local communities.

Right to Rest Model Legislation Homeless Bill of Rights Campaign

Our Right to Rest Act (#Right2Rest) in Oregon, California & Colorado proposes legislation that protects the following rights and prohibits the enforcement of any local laws that violate these rights:

- Right to move freely, rest, sleep and be protected in public space without discrimination.
- Right to rest in public spaces and protect oneself from the elements in a non-obstructive manner.
- Right to occupy a legally parked vehicle.
- Right to share food and eat in public.

Homeless Bill of Rights Campaign

Laws that segregate, that make criminals of people based on their status rather than their behavior, are not just sad relics from history. Our HBR campaign stands on the shoulders of social justice campaigns of the past. It seeks to provide a framework for communities to protect the following rights and prohibit the enforcement of local laws that violate these rights:

1. Right to move freely, rest, sleep and be protected in public spaces without discrimination.
2. Right to occupy a legally parked vehicle.
3. Right to share food and eat in public.
4. Right to legal counsel if being prosecuted.
5. Right to 24-hour access to “hygiene facilities.”
6. Require judges consider necessity defense when hearing homeless related cases.
