

On the 69th Anniversary of the historic Montgomery Bus Boycott

That was then...
...this is Now!

Angry Citizens Stage Bus Boycott in Ala. City

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—Negroes of this city, stirred to effective protest against segregation and discrimination, began a mass boycott of the city's bus lines Monday that cut Negro patronage 85 per cent.

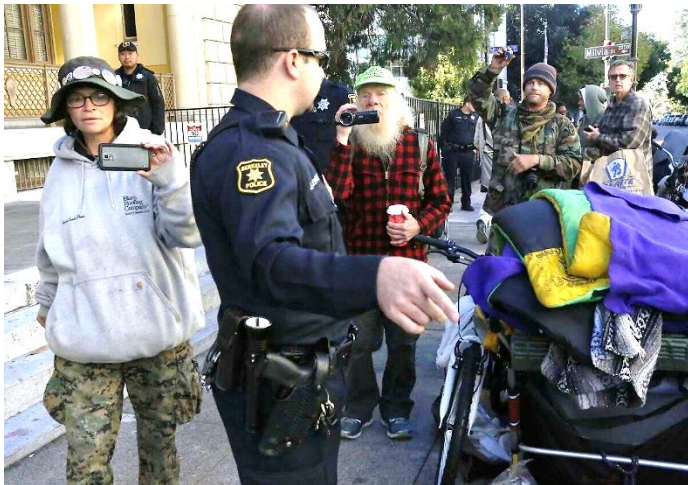

the boycott in protest to segregation practices of the bus company.

Manager J. H. Bagley of the city bus lines, reported some one had fired a small caliber rifle bullet into a bus in the Negro section Tuesday night.

Negro spokesmen said a delega-

↑
1955: Montgomery police watch while people boycotting buses gather at ride pickup station
(Photo by Don Cravens.)

← 2024: Berkeley's homeless challenge sweeps, defy criminalization with organized resistance camps

What today's housing justice movement can learn from the Montgomery Bus Boycott

A National Press Conference and Online Community Gathering

Thursday, December 5, 2024

(4:00 pm Pacific / 6: 00 pm Central / 7:00 pm Eastern)

<https://us06web.zoom.us/j/82597238450>

Andrea Henson, Attorney and Ian Cordova Morales, President, "Where Do We Go" * Tiny Garcia, POOR Magazine
John Janosko and "Freeway," Wood Street Commons * Yesica Prado, Berkeley Homeless Union * Jason Sarris,
"Camp Compassion": Marin County Homeless Union * Rev. Dr. Savina Martin, National Union of the Homeless
Moderator: Crystal Sanchez, President, Sacramento Homeless Union.

Special Guest: Doris Crenshaw, teenage participant in the Montgomery Bus Boycott and founder of the Southern Youth Development Institute

Sponsored by: National Union of the Homeless * National Coalition for the Homeless * California Homeless Union * Where Do We Go * (Partial list:)